

Christie

Chan Sze-kee

Hello, this is Christie. I am now a second year student of the University of Hong Kong, undertaking my law degree.

When applying the program, I have neither thought of being nominated by the University nor finally having the chance to be a delegate. So it is really a great honour to me to be selected. I hope that all of you would enjoy reading our report, and share our happiness and invaluable experience.

Yuki

Chan Ting-li

Hello, I'm Yuki Chan, a form 6 science student of the Tsuen Wan Public Ho Chuen Yiu Memorial College (a schoolmate of Holly!). I'm only 18 years old (pretty young, right?). Besides studying, I have quite a wide range of hobbies including listening music, reading, watching movies, exploring the internet and making new friends. It's really my great honour to be here in the delegation which represents Hong Kong to promote international cultural exchange. Something which is very true that I must say out loud here: this trip absolutely broadens my horizon and changes my life remarkably.

Ann

Cheung Yan-ye

Ann Cheung Yan Yee, B.Nurs.IV student from the University of Hong Kong.

Despite a little bit fat, she is cheerful, energetic, interested in reading Chinese fiction, like all kinds of ball games, jazz and sharing with friends. She would be most happy if you desire and treasure her as a friend!

As a young adult who is tracking her way, she may tell you this. 'Named as God's servant, we are motivated to serve for the sick and the very smallest. When others in need, just give a hand and be a buddy. Got your mission and go for it!'

Rebecca

Cheung Ying-ying

Hi! I'm Rebecca, a second year student studying English in University of Hong Kong.

There are three components very essential in my life: God, relationships and dreams. One of my dreams is to explore the world so that's why I love travelling and learning languages. From that I am able to meet different people of different cultures. I am so lucky that this trip, a gift from God, enables me to fulfil my dreams with all my dear groupmates sharing this highlighting episode in my life.

Kelvin

Choi Tsz-chun

Hi, this is Kelvin here. I am a year two student in the Hong Kong Polytechnic University studying physiotherapy.

I am so glad that I had the chance to represent Hong Kong visiting another country and learn about the Australian culture. I have very deep interest in different cultures and this trip was really a golden chance for me to explore and practise another culture. What made this trip more exciting for me is, this was also my first time travelling abroad!!

Holly

Chung Ho-ying

My name is Holly Chung Ho-ying. I am a Form 7 Arts student studying in Tsuen Wan Ho Chuen Yiu Memorial College.

During secondary schools years, I've taken part in various extra-curricular activities as well as lots of community services. However, I lacked the chance to take a look of the world besides Hong Kong. It was so fortunate and honourable for me to be selected as one of the Hong Kong youth delegates in the International Youth Exchange Programme to Australia. It was really an unforgettable experience to expose myself to such a fascinating city, Brisbane, for two weeks. I do hope that more youths can have such an opportunity to have cultural exchange with people in the whole world in the future.

Venus

Ho Wai-lan

Hi, I'm Venus. I have just finished a three-year course ,Certificate of Education for Primary School , in the Hong Kong Institute of Education.

Now I continue studying the degree course there. I like traveling very much. I like to learn about new things and other's culture so that I can tell my students what I learnt about other countries. I like my students to explore more and not only study their textbooks. I am so glad to be chosen to go to Australia this summer. Last summer I went to the UK the immersion programme. I hope I can travel all over the world in my life.

Keziah

Law Ka-pui

Ciao! Here is Keziah. I am a Christian from Alliance Church. I have just graduated from the Hong Kong Institute of Education. My electives are English and Art and Design. I am an active person . I love meeting people and I always treasure chances to get along with others. I think I can learn a lot from them. Hence, this is an honour for me to be selected as one of the delegates. I would like to thank my Institute and the Commission on Youth for selecting me.

Ho Yan Fan

My name is Fan, Ho Yat Fan. I am a secondary six student at Queen Elizabeth School.

I love discovering different kinds of things and that is why I have chosen to study in the science stream. To me, the discoveries of mysterious tombs and lost civilizations are very fascinating. Besides, I like drawing, cooking, writing, singing, doing voluntary work, swimming, playing badminton and joining the Youth Exchange Program!

The life-enhancing trip to Australia gave me an opportunity to explore cultural differences and similarities, and my own talents and limits! After the visit, I realise that we can always attain our goals when we work in concert with our friends.

Vincent Lung

I am Vincent Lung, a Form 7 science student from La Salle College.

It is my first time to go on an exchange programme and it has been a new and fascinating experience for me.

I am adventurous and like to experience different cultures. This trip provides me with an invaluable opportunity to understand more of the Australian way of life as well as our own Chinese culture.

I am very delighted to be selected to go on the exchange programme and I promise to give all I get from this trip to serve Hong Kong in the future.

Tang Wing-see

Name: Tang Wing See

Study: Chinese University of Hong Kong
United College Integrated BBA Programme
Year 2

Philosophy: I have only one life and one youthhood. I don't know anything about my future. I even don't know what will happen tomorrow. That's why I treasure every minute and everything I have at the moment. I grasp every chance to learn, to experience, to feel and to contribute myself. I hope I will have no repentance when I leave the world.

Aspiration: become a forever student

Why joined IYEP: purely curiosity

Impression after joining IYEP: I will regret if I didn't join IYEP. (You want to know why? Go and see my Reflection page.)

Joyce

Tse Nga-fong

I am Joyce Nga-fong Tse, a year three student in the Chinese University of Hong Kong majoring in Economics.

The experience in Australia has widened my horizon. The experience with the host family, the adventure in the mud pool, the chat with the youth group, all are unforgettable events to me. Besides, I really appreciate with my fellows . Thanks for their support and concern in and after the trip. It is really enjoyable for me to join this International Exchange Programme this summer.

Christopher

Tse Tsun-ting

Christopher TSE Tsun-ting is currently a second year law student in the University of Hong Kong.

He involves himself in the HKU Social Service Group, the school choir, and enjoys every bit of the serious school work, and of course, or even more, the social life. Chris takes much pride in being selected to participate in the International Youth Exchange Programme, though throughout the trip he might be considered more a trouble-maker. But if the word 'contribution' is to be considered, then his physical labour (as there are only 4 male delegates) might seem to be an asset.

Sharon

Yau Mei-mei

Hi! I am Sharon, or you can call me Mei Mei. I am a 19-year-old girl who just started my first year studies in Faculty of Education at the University of Hong Kong.

I love music, dancing, meeting people and learning from different aspects. This is my greatest pleasure to be a delegate in this youth exchange programme. It was the first time I visited Australia and I had a lovely stay there. Not only had I learned about the Australian culture and customs, but also gained valuable friendship with my group mates and the Australian youth groups. It was surely an enjoyable and challenging experience.

Howard

Yu Ho

Hello! I am Howard, a year two student of the University of Hong Kong studying BBA.

I am so glad that I have this chance to represent Hong Kong to visit Australia, as a kind of cultural exchange, and learn about their culture. This is not the first time I visit Australia, but with different purpose in the visit and different people that I go with, this is really a new and remarkable experience for me !!

Rosanna

Yeung Chi-shan

Hello! This is Rosanna. I am a Form Seven student studying science in Tsuen Wan Government Secondary School.

Debating and voluntary work are activities which I actively participate in. I also enjoy swimming, dancing, eating, travelling and meeting new friends. When I was asked to be a delegate to Australia, I did not hesitate but say 'yes', even I was busy preparing my AL examination by that time. I am quite sure there will be many challenges waiting for me in this journey. I cannot wait for a second more to be there!
